Jury Trial Demanded

CITY OF NEW YORK, GARY LEITE, Individually,
JOSEPH WALL, Individually, and JOHN and JANE DOE
1 through 10, Individually (the names John and Jane Doe being fictitious, as the true names are presently unknown),

Defendants.
-----X

Plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO, by his attorneys, Leventhal & Klein, LLP, complaining of the defendants, respectfully alleges as follows:

Preliminary Statement

1. Plaintiff brings this action for compensatory damages, punitive damages and attorneys' fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§1983 and 1988 for violations of his civil rights, as said rights are secured by said statutes and the Constitution of the United States. Plaintiff also asserts supplemental state law claims.

JURISDICTION

2. This action is brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983 and 1988, and the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

3. Jurisdiction is found upon 28 U.S.C. §§1331, 1343 and 1367.

VENUE

4. Venue is properly laid in the Eastern District of New York under 28 U.S.C. §

1391(b), in that this is the District in which the claim arose.

JURY DEMAND

5. Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury of all issues in this matter pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38 (b).

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO is a thirty-three year old Hispanic American male who resides in the State of New York, County of Kings.

7. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains the New York City Police Department, a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, CITY OF NEW YORK.

9. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants GARY LEITE, JOSEPH WALL, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10, were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

12. On January 19, 2012, at approximately 10:30 p.m., plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO was lawfully present in front of his residence, located at 220 Throop Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, when he was without any cause or justification approached, detained and questioned by defendant New York City Police officers GARY LEITE and JOSEPH WALL.

13. Although plaintiff had committed no crimes or offenses, the defendant officers unlawfully threatened to arrest plaintiff.

14. Out of fear, plaintiff lawfully fled into his building at 220 Throop Avenue.

15. The defendant officers pursued plaintiff into the building despite the lack of any legitimate basis to do so. As plaintiff was about to descend a set of stairs, a defendant officer, believed to be GARY LEITE, gratuitously pushed plaintiff in the back, causing plaintiff to fall forward, and to land on his heel in a manner that resulted in plaintiff sustaining an injury to his left heel.

16. The defendant officers' actions were excessive and otherwise unreasonable under the circumstances.

17. After assaulting plaintiff, the defendant officers handcuffed plaintiff, imprisoned him in a police vehicle, and transported him to the 79th Street Police Precinct, despite his need for immediate medical attention for his serious injuries.

18. After a period of time, the defendant officers allowed plaintiff to be transported to Woodhull Medical and Mental Health Center, where he was diagnosed with a comminuted fracture of his left calcaneus bone.

19. After plaintiff was released from the hospital, the defendant officers continued to imprison plaintiff until January 20, 2012, when at approximately 9:00 p.m., the defendant officers released plaintiff without charging him with any crimes or offenses. Upon information and belief, plaintiff's arrest was voided, and consequently sealed.

20. Plaintiff returned to Woodhull Medical and Mental Health Center on numerous occasions for additional treatment arising from the incident, including surgery on February 9, 2012.

21. The defendant officers either participated in and/or failed to intervene in the illegal conduct described herein.

22. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs or practices of the City of New York, including, without limitation, the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training and supervising of its employees, and due to discrimination against plaintiff due to his race and/or nationality, and pursuant to a de facto custom or practice of racially motivated stop, question and frisk activity by the NYPD, as well as a policy of widespread falsification and cover ups of abuse of authority and use of excessive force.

23. The aforesaid event is not an isolated incident. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is aware (from lawsuits, notices of claims, and complaints filed with the NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau, and the CITY OF NEW YORK's Civilian Complaint Review Board) that many NYPD officers are insufficiently trained regarding the requirements to stop and arrest individuals, disproportionately stop, detain, and arrest individuals based on their race and/or nationality, engage in the excessive use force, and in a policy of falsification.

24. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is further aware that such improper training has often resulted in a deprivation of civil rights. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to take corrective action. This failure caused the officers in the present case to violate the plaintiff's civil rights.

25. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was aware, prior to the incident, that the individual defendants lacked the objectivity, temperament, maturity, discretion, and disposition to be employed as police officers. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has retained these officers, and failed to adequately train and supervise them.

26. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

Federal Claims

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION (Deprivation of Rights Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983)

27. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "1" through "26" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

28. All of the aforementioned acts of defendants, their agents, servants and employees were carried out under the color of state law.

29. All of the aforementioned acts deprived plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO, a member of a racial minority, of the rights, privileges and immunities guaranteed to citizens of the United States by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America, and in violation of 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 and 1983.

30. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual defendants in their capacities as police officers, with the entire actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto, and with the intent to discriminate on the basis of race.

31. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual defendants in their capacities as police officers, pursuant to the customs, usages, practices, procedures, and the rules of the CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department, all under the supervision of ranking officers of said department.

32. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of the respective municipality/authority, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

33. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO is entitled to compensatory damages in an amount to be fixed by a jury, and is further entitled to punitive damages against the individual defendants in an amount to be fixed by a jury, plus reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements of this action.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(False Arrest/Unlawful Imprisonment under 42 U.S.C. § 1983)

34. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered "1" through "33" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

35. Defendants arrested plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO without probable cause, causing him to be detained against his will for an extended period of time and subjected to physical restraints.

36. Defendants caused plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO to be falsely arrested.

37. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO is entitled to compensatory damages in an amount to be fixed by a jury, and is further entitled to punitive damages against the individual defendants in an amount to be fixed by a jury, plus reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements of this action.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(Excessive Force under 42 U.S.C. § 1983)

38. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered “1” through “37” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

39. The level of force employed by defendants was excessive, objectively unreasonable and otherwise in violation of plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO’S constitutional rights.

40. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO was subjected to excessive force and sustained physical pain and suffering and emotional injuries.

41. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO is entitled to compensatory damages in an amount to be fixed by a jury, and is further entitled to punitive damages against the individual defendants in an amount to be fixed by a jury, plus reasonable attorneys’ fees, costs and disbursements of this action.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Deliberate Indifference to Serious Medical Needs under 42 U.S.C. § 1983)

42. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs “1” through “41” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

43. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that was deliberately indifferent to plaintiff’s serious medical needs by disregarding an excessive risk to the plaintiff’s health or safety, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

44. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff ISA MARTIN is entitled to compensatory damages in an amount to be fixed by a jury, and is further entitled to punitive damages against the individual defendants in an amount to be fixed by a jury, plus reasonable attorney’s fees, costs and disbursements of this action.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Violation of the Equal Protection Clause under 42 U.S.C. § 1983)

45. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered “1” through “44” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

46. The defendants falsely arrested and subjected plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO to excessive force because of the plaintiff’s national origin, and/or race, or otherwise failed to intervene to prevent such treatment committed in their presence by other NYPD officers.

47. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO was deprived of his rights under the Equal Protection Clause of the United States Constitution.

48. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO is entitled to compensatory damages in an amount to be fixed by a jury, and is further entitled to punitive damages against the individual defendants in an amount to be fixed by a jury, plus reasonable attorneys’ fees, costs and disbursements of this action.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Failure to Intervene under 42 U.S.C. § 1983)

49. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered “1” through “48” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

50. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

51. The defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

52. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO’S liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subjected to excessive force.

53. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO is entitled to compensatory damages in an amount to be fixed by a jury, and is further entitled to punitive damages against the individual defendants in an amount to be fixed by a jury, plus reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements of this action.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Supervisory Liability under 42 U.S.C. § 1983)

54. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered "1" through "53" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

55. The supervisory defendants personally caused plaintiff's constitutional injury by being deliberately or consciously indifferent to the rights of others in failing to properly supervise and train their subordinate employees.

56. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO is entitled to compensatory damages in an amount to be fixed by a jury, and is further entitled to punitive damages against the individual defendants in an amount to be fixed by a jury, plus reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements of this action.

AS AND FOR AN EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Municipal Liability under 42 U.S.C. § 1983)

57. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered "1" through "57" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

58. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of the respective municipality/authority, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

59. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the New York City Police Department included, but were not limited to, falsely arresting individuals, subjecting individuals to excessive force, disproportionately stopping, detaining, and arresting individuals based on their race and/or nationality, and engaging in a practice of falsification.

60. The aforementioned customs, polices, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO'S rights as described herein.

61. As a result of the failure of the CITY OF NEW YORK to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.

62. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department constituted deliberate indifference to the safety, well-being and constitutional rights of plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO.

63. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department were the direct and proximate cause of the constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO as alleged herein.

64. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO as alleged herein.

65. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department, plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO was unlawfully arrested and subjected to excessive force.

66. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO'S constitutional rights.

67. All of the foregoing acts by defendants deprived plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO of federally protected rights, including, but not limited to, the right:

- A. Not to be deprived of liberty without due process of law;
- B. To be free from false arrest/unlawful imprisonment;
- C. To be free from excessive force;
- D. To be free from deliberate indifference to serious medical needs;
- E. To be free from the failure to intervene; and
- F. To receive equal protection under law.

68. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff EDGAR NAZARIO is entitled to compensatory damages in an amount to be fixed by a jury, and is further entitled to punitive damages against the individual defendants in an amount to be fixed by a jury, plus reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements of this action.

Supplemental State Law Claims

69. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered "1" through "68" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

70. Within ninety (90) days after the claim herein accrued, plaintiff duly served upon, presented to and filed with the CITY OF NEW YORK, a Notice of Claim setting forth all facts and information required under the General Municipal Law 50-e.

71. The CITY OF NEW YORK has wholly neglected or refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof and more than thirty (30) days have elapsed since the presentation of such claim as aforesaid.

72. This action was commenced within one (1) year and ninety (90) days after the cause of action herein accrued.

73. Plaintiff has complied with all conditions precedent to maintaining the instant action.

74. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as outlined in C.P.L.R. 1602.
